

SAVE THE DATE: 3, 4 and (5) June 2019 19th International Wildlife Law Conference (IWLC-19)

The 19th International Wildlife Law Conference will be held the 3-4 June 2019 in Barcelona, Spain. The conference is being hosted by the University of Barcelona Faculty of Law in partnership with the Institute for Biodiversity Law and Policy of Stetson University College of Law. It will bring together a variety of professionals involved in wildlife conservation, including lawyers, policymakers, and scientists; student participation is strongly encouraged. An optional field trip will take place on 5 June.

This event welcomes not only law professionals/students with an interest in wildlife, but also wildlife professionals/students with an interest in law.

Call for papers deadline: 21 September 2018

Notification of acceptance: 18 October 2018

IWLC-19 will include papers on a range of legal and policy frameworks related to wildlife protection and conservation. Papers are invited on the following aspects of international and regional wildlife law and policy:

- Coastal and near-shore biodiversity
- UNCLOS and the conservation of marine biodiversity in areas beyond national jurisdiction
- Ethical and legal issues related to trophy hunting
- International scientific assessments and their implementation into international and domestic legal regimes
- Increasing the effectiveness of protected areas

Papers on other topics will also be considered. Should you wish to present a paper at IWLC-19, please submit an abstract (maximum 300 words) to iwlc-19@law.stetson.edu no later than 21 September 2018.

The Journal of International Wildlife Law and Policy welcomes the submission of manuscripts based on IWLC-19 presentations.
